'Work together to bring rights and justice'

Fifth anniversary of Rana Plaza tragedy

Remembering Rana Plaza victims

'Work together to bring rights and justice'

Speakers in a human chain and discussion observing 5th anniversary of Rana Plaza accident on 24 April 2018 said that the victims should work together for ensuring rights and justice.

Commemorating the deadly disaster in the country's apparel industry, Rana Plaza Accident Victims Rights Network, Bangladesh Occupational Safety, Health and Environment Foundation (OSHE), Asia Monitor Resource Center (AMRC), Swiss trade union Solidar and Asian Network for the Rights of Occupational and Environmental Victims (ANROEV) participated the event at Savar near the place where the accident happened.

The activists paid tribute to the victims of the deadliest building collapse that robbed the happiness of hundreds of families as their bread earners were either killed or permanently lost their ability to work. The search for the dead ended on 13 May 2013 with a death toll of 1,138. Approximately 2,500 injured people were rescued from the building alive.

Around 150 survivors and members of the deceased family of Rana Plaza Accident Victims Rights Network along with representatives of the ANROEV, AMRC, Suisse Solidar and OSHE representatives were present in the site to pay tribute to those who lost their lives in this tragedy.

A human chain was formed demanding workers rehabilitation, social protection, and alternative employment opportunity for injured workers, medical support and legal justice for the victims through a coordinated way by the representatives of the network and its supporters. Victims demanded that ensuring fair compensation, social protection, medical treatment, rehabilitation and justice are still needed for the victims as they are in dire need of support. Asian Monitor Resource Center (AMRC) program coordinator Omana George, OSHE executive director A R Chowdhury Repon, OSHE foundation chairperson Saki Rezwana, Solidar Suisse Asia regional coordinator Sanjiv Pandita, Solidar Suisse Asia desk officer Bernhard Herold, Federation of Garments Workers (FGW) general secretary China Rahman and members of Rana Plaza Accident Victim's Rights Network also joined in the program.

Speakers and network members keep silence remembering the victims of Rana Plaza tragedy

Speakers at the human chain urged meaningful action for workers' rights. They also called for transparency in the actions taken by the Government to address the needs of the workers, building safety and social protection of all industries in Bangladesh. Later in the afternoon, Rana Plaza Accident Victims Rights Network and ANROEV organized a discussion session on the compensation and rehabilitation status of Rana Plaza victims.

Omana George said Rana Plaza Victims Network must be active to bring the justice and dignity. The network should fight for equal compensation.

Sanjiv Pandita mentioned that victims network should organize as a group to fight against injustice.

A R Chowdhury Repon opined that victim network should transform as an institution for serving and supporting the members. All of the speakers highlighted the urgent necessity of alternative employment for workers and social protection. At least 40 family members of the victims and injured workers took part in the discussion. They sought alternative employment opportunities, prompt and sustained medical treatment for the injured workers.

Jewel Sarker, who was working at the 8th floor of Rana Plaza as sewing operator, demanded treatment for his eyes and alternative employment. Wahidul Islam, convener of Rana Plaza Accident Victims Network, urged to provide more support to accelerate the network for bringing justice. The demands of this tragic accident victims are yet to be properly settled.
